

SENTENCES I

Turn the following sentences into a negative and question form.

Example:

+     Mary has a lot of friends.

Neg. Mary doesn't have a lot of friends.

?     Does Mary have a lot of friends?

Yes, she does,

No, she doesn't.

1. The table is very big.
2. Mary comes to school every day.
3. The children play in the park.
4. His sister reads novels.
5. Her cat drinks milk.
6. Hunting dogs run very fast.
7. We write letters.
8. Simon and Tony work in a shop.
9. Our watch is black.
10. Their sister eats many cakes.
11. Alison and Betty have green skirts.
12. John likes tea.
13. Sheila likes tea and biscuits.
14. Your father sells cars.
15. I'm a Spanish teacher.
16. The boys go to the cinema.
17. His brother speaks Italian.
18. Peter goes to church on Sundays.
19. The boys play football.
20. Monkeys eat bananas.
21. They read comics.
22. We are in the classroom.
23. Those shoes are too small.
24. Enrique gets up at 8:00 in the morning.
25. Jane speaks four languages.
26. The weather is hot today.
27. Jill leaves home at 5:30.
28. Kevin works for a Swiss bank.
29. Peter finishes work in the evening.
30. Carla lives far from the station.
31. He can type very fast.
32. Sharon cooks really well.
33. You can buy meat at the butcher's.
34. The students go home at the weekends.
35. The dog sleeps seven hours a day.
36. Jessica can swim really fast.
37. Brenda and you speak Japanese.
38. Sue can speak three foreign languages.
39. Mary goes to school.
40. She has a lot of money.