

Passive (2 objects) (2 sentences each)

1. They sent my sister two tickets for the concert.
2. People will show the visitors the new buildings.
3. They promised us higher wages.
4. Somebody recommended me to another doctor.
5. Someone taught him French and gave him a dictionary.
6. They will allow each boy a second plate of ice-cream.
7. The authorities refused Jason a passport.
8. They will ask us several questions.
9. When we first met, they had already offered me a job at the bank.
10. Someone will read you another chapter next time.
11. They still deny women the right to vote in some countries.
12. Someone is showing the students the way round the school.

Passive (Rumors) (2 sentences each)

1. People think that he is living in New York.
2. The police believe that the fire began in the kitchen.
3. They reported that 20 people are homeless after the earthquake.
4. People know that the Prime Minister is in favour of the new law.
5. The police think that the prisoner escaped by climbing over the wall.
6. They say that three men were arrested after the explosion.
7. People say that the monument is over 2000 years old.
8. People expect that the President will resign.
9. People think the fire started at about 8 o'clock.
10. Journalists reported that seven people had been injured in the fire.

Passive to Active

1. This notice has been altered.
2. You will be asked a lot of questions at the interview.
3. How was that fish caught?
4. Our dog was run over by a car last week
5. Have those letters been signed by the boss yet?
6. Dark suit and tie must be worn at the ceremony.
7. The wanted man is believed to be living in New York.
8. My bicycle must have been stolen.
9. Complaints should be sent to the main office.
10. Have you been shown the new machine?