

The following statements are not true. Can you correct them?

For example:

1. We are on the beach (in class).

No, we aren't on the beach. We are in class.

2. In Britain, people drive on the right (on the left).

No, in Britain people don't drive on the right. They drive on the left.

1. The sun rises in the West.
2. The Pope lives in France.
3. We travel to Hawaii every summer.
4. Skiing is boring.
5. They went to a Chinese restaurant last night.
6. There were a lot of people at the party last night.
7. She wrote me a long letter to apologise.
8. I told you to come at 6:00.

Suggestions for possible answers:

a few people / at 6:30 / Fuengirola / fun / Indian restarurant / East / a short email / Italy

The following statements are not true. Can you correct them?

For example:

1. We are on the beach (in class).

No, we aren't on the beach. We are in class.

2. In Britain, people drive on the right (on the left).

No, in Britain people don't drive on the right. They drive on the left.

-
1. Mice catch cats.

2. It snows when it is hot.

3. Jennifer has a lot of friends.

4. Messi plays for Real Madrid.

5. She will get more money next year.

6. They ate the whole turkey.

7. He's bought a brand new car.

8. My father was going to get me an MP3 for my birthday.

Suggestions for possible answers:

cold / mp4 / Barcelona / less money / a few friends / half of the turkey / second hand
