Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing with reference to the job offer that you have advertised in the local newspaper. I am a student from Lucena, a city in the south of Spain and I am very interested in becoming part of your team because I think it would be a great opportunity to get experience in sales.

I would like to know a little bit more about your company. How many people do you normally employ? Is the workplace near the city centre?

Regarding payment, will I get paid in cash or bank transfer? Do I need to open a bank account in Scotland?

Does your insurance plan also include medical assistance apart from dental and vision care?

Finally, I would like to know how long training takes and how much I get paid for that.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours, sincerely,

Jose Ballesteros

P.S.: Is it possible to share accommodation with another member of the team?
